

Press Release

For Immediate Release

September 18, 2019

Jose “Joe” L. Chi was duly elected today, September 18, 2019, as the President of the Latin Chamber of Commerce of the United States, CAMACOL for the 19/21 term, in accordance with the organization’s bylaws.

The board also elected members of the Executive Committee for the 2019/21 as follows:

Italo Torrese, Executive Vice President of Latin American Invest Corporation, USA, as Vice President; Fausto Alvarez, CPA Alvarez, P.A. as Treasurer; Hon. Wilfredo “Willy” Gort, Chair of the Hemispheric Congress and XXX as Secretary of the chamber.

CAMACOL welcomes Julian Linares of Sacha Enterprises, Inc.; Richard A. Alayon, Senior Partner at Alayon & Associates, P.A.; Joseph F. Suarez, CEO of Blue Diamond Investment Partners Corp., and Eric Olafson, Esq, Director of Global Trade and Business Development, Port Miami, to the board of directors.

The four additions to the board are established professionals and entrepreneurs who have made significant economic and civic contributions in our community. They join the CAMACOL board with a collective commitment to expand the organization’s scope and continued support of philanthropic works such as the Holiday Food Basket Drive.

CAMACOL is one of the largest Hispanic business organizations in Florida with a mission to foster the entrepreneurial spirit of Florida’s Hispanic and small business communities. As such, CAMACOL conducts programs to strengthen business activity, promote economic development, facilitate international trade and foster the film and entertainment sector in the global marketplace. Through its Hemispheric Congress, CAMACOL is the only Florida based business organization with an established infrastructure comprised of 26 national chambers of commerce throughout the Latin America region and Spain, with a 41 year track record in establishing linkages in the international marketplace. It’s Miami Media and Film Market, now in its 10th year is a global content market and forum.

#####